At all material times, the Plaintiff would deliver concrete to a location at the request of the Defendant, and upon delivery provide a delivery slip which was signed by the Defendant acknowledging receipt of the goods and then submit an invoice subsequently for the payment for the goods and services rendered.

4. There was no formal written contract drawn between the parties to govern the facility by which credit was so advanced, however the terms and conditions of payment were known to the Defendant at all material times and were clarified in writing on the front and back of each Delivery Ticket. Each delivery ticket had a signature box to be signed by the Defendant or their agent, above which was written:

"I acknowledge that I have received and accepted the materials listed on this ticket. I understand and agree to the terms on both the front and back of this ticket." (the "Agreement")

5. The delivery tickets contained, inter alia, the following terms on the reverse:

If it becomes necessary to bring any action to collect amounts due on this invoice, Purchaser shall be responsible for reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred by vendor in securing collection. Interest shall accrue at 2% per month on outstanding balances”.

6. In performance of the Agreement, the Plaintiff supplied goods to the Defendant and rendered the following invoices from time to time (collectively the “Invoices”):
Additionally, the Defendant issued a cheque to settle previous outstanding invoices which was not honored by the bank.
