PARTICULAR OF CLAIM

(Here set out in numbered paragraphs are the grounds upon which the Plaintiff claims that the Defendant is indebted to him or is liable to pay damages to him)

1. In 2023, I was by the walk way of the Defendant's door to speak with her respectfully about ongoing issues affecting my home: extremely loud generator noise 24 hours a day, fumes, and my driveway being blocked by a neighbor's truck for over one year and six months. Before I could speak, the Defendant opened her door and threw a bucket of dirty water directly into my face, intentionally and without provocation. This act constitutes civil battery and caused me humiliation, fear, and emotional distress.

2. After this incident, I called 911. Instead of addressing the assault against me, I was wrongfully arrested. The following day, I went to the Commissioner of Police's office to report the wrongful arrest and damage to my speaker box from the water. Inspector Dian Dyer requested a copy of my bail bond, which I provided. I was held on bail for six months before the charge was dismissed. She then paid me $90.00 to replace my Speaker box. This caused significant emotional trauma, embarrassment, and stress.

3. Following this, the Defendant continued to engage in threatening and harassing behavior. When I informed the strata that I planned to plant a few moringa trees on Earth Day in the lawn space in front of my apartment, the Defendant, Millisa King, reacted aggressively. She called the Police and falsely reported I was planting trees on my neighbors property. She attempted to hit me with her car.

4. Later that same day, as I stood at the entrance of Rankin way off Linford Pearson Highway, the Defendant slowed her vehicle, stared directly at me with a bitter rage, and then drove so close to me that I was nearly pushed over the edge of the wall while trying to avoid being struck. I immediately called 911 to report the incident, fearing for my life. No action was taken by police. I later learned that the Defendant is an employee of Border Control, which increased my fear that she may be using her position or influence against me.

5. These incidents demonstrate a pattern of harassment, intimidation, and intentional harm caused by the Defendant. Her actions have resulted in:

Emotional distress

Fear and anxiety

Humiliation

Loss of sleep

Ongoing stress

Interference with my peaceful enjoyment of my home

A wrongful arrest and six months on bail

PLAINTIFF CLAIM:

SUM TOTAL OF $20,000.00.

This amount should be paid by December 10, 2025 to avoid a 50% interest rate added to the sum.

I ask the Court to award damages for:

Defamation of character

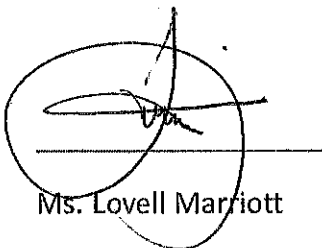

Civil battery

Harassment

Emotional and psychological distress

Loss of peace and security

Costs associated with the wrongful arrest.
