PARTICULARS OF CLAIM

(Here set out in numbered paragraphs the grounds upon which the Plaintiff claims that the Defendant is indebted to him or is liable to pay damages to him).

1. The Plaintiff is employed as a Civil Servant, and is the owner of registration section West Bay South, Block 4D, Parcel 180.
2. The Defendant is a Civil Servant, employed by the Cayman Islands Government and the Department of Environmental Health.
3. On or around 19th June, 2025 circa 9:54 am, a bull owned by the defendant, was located on Block 4D Parcel 70 (property not owned by the defendant).
4. The bull broke down the fence and entered the property belonging to the co-plaintiffs, and proceeded to eat the fruit trees in their yard. AND the same bull previously broke the fence to the left side of the gate.
5. The Defendant is the owner of various livestock including cattle, goats and other various livestock.
6. On 19th July, 2025 at 9:54 am The Plaintiff was at home and saw the one of the bulls belonging to the Defendant when the said bull broke down and destroyed the fence, and entered the Plaintiff's property eating from my various fruit trees.
7. On 19th July, 2025 at 10:02 am, the Plaintiff's husband, Derren Burlington, messaged the Defendant via whatsapp, and sent him the video evidence of the bull on the Plaintiff's property where the damage was caused to the fence.
8. The Defendant called the Plaintiff's husband Derren Burlington stating that the man who tied his bull, tied the bull too long, and he was sending him there now to move the bull.
9. That on the 19th September, 2025 Derren Burlington made a follow up call to the Defendant reminding him that the fence remained unrepaired. The Defendant promised to meet at the Plaintiff's house the following day but did not show up.
10. Since then, the Plaintiff's husband has made several failed attempts at contacting the Defendant on the Plaintiff's behalf but to no avail.
11. On the 11th November, 2025 the Plaintiff and her husband wrote a joint letter to the Defendant requesting that the fence be repaired. The Defendant was served via a process server by Sprint Express Services on 11th November, 2025 timed at 12:36 pm.
12. Despite various requests that the fence be repaired, the Defendant has failed to repair the fence.

13. The Defendants has failed to pay the total sum of CI$1,58.00 due owing to the Plaintiff who has suffered loss for the repair of the damaged fence.

AND the Plaintiff therefore claims:

1. The sum of CI$1,528.00
2. Interest at the statutory rate
3. Interest to continue to accrue until this matter is settled
4. Process Service fees
5. Fixed costs of $150.00, alternatively costs to be assessed.
