Issued: 3 February 2026

See overleaf for particulars of the Plaintiff's claim.

1. That the First Defendant is a business licensed to operate in the Cayman Islands and is owned by Kayla Davidson.
2. That the Second Defendant is the son of the First Defendant and assists with the operation of the business and does importation of vehicles to sell under the license of the First Defendant.
3. That in the beginning of September 2025 the Second Defendant showed the Plaintiff some vehicle and it was decided which vehicle the Plaintiff would purchase. The Second Defendant advised the Plaintiff that the vehicle was already on ordered and was due to arrive on Island.
4. That on 22nd September 2025 the Plaintiff entered into an Agreement dated 19th September 2025 with the Defendants called Final Sales, Lease to Own and Special Order Agreement to purchase a white 2018 Honda Vezel for the purchase price of $15,500 as per Clause A and B of the Agreement.
5. That it was agreed that the Plaintiff would make a down payment of CI$7,000 on execution as per Clause B of the Agreement. The balance of CI$8,500 was to be paid on a monthly basis in the amount of CI$1,000 until the balance is fully paid as per Clause G of the Agreement.
6. That on 18 September 2025 the amount of CI$7,000 was transferred to the personal account of the Second Defendant CNB bank account 012-47172.
7. That on 8 October 2025 the Plaintiff started following up on the arrival of the vehicle and the Second Defendant kept pushing the date back by a week and changing the arrival date all the while reassuring the vehicle will soon arrive on Island.
8. The Plaintiff advised the second defendant on 18th November and 30th December 2025 that she was no longer interested in the purchase of this vehicle, due to the frustration, and asked that the Second Defendant return the amount of CI$7000 to the Plaintiff.

9. The Second Plaintiff kept sending me various other invoices for other cars representing a vehicle that was shipped. After checking with Miracle Brokers they confirmed that they do not have the vehicle purchased due to arrive in the name of the First or Second Defendant and asked that the VIN number be provided which the Second Defendant could not provide.
10. That on or around 16th January 2026 a police report was made in which the Second Defendant was contacted by Financial Crimes Department. The Plaintiff informed the Plaintiff that the Second Defendant was previously arrested and bailed for similar behavior.
11. That to date the Plaintiff has not received the vehicle or the refund of any money from the Defendants.

THE PLAINTIFF is therefore entitled to and claims:

- 1 The sum of CI$7000 being the amount paid as deposit;
- 2 Interest calculated at the prescribed rate pursuant to s.34 Judicature Law (2007 Revision) in the amount of CI$6 per day from 1 January 2026 per day until the matter is determined;
- 3 Fixed costs in the amount of CI$150, alternatively, costs to be assessed.

If within the time for returning the Acknowledgment of Service the Defendant pays the amount claimed of CI$7000, interest to be calculated from the 1st January 2026 and fixed costs in the amount of CI$150 then further proceedings will be stayed.

The money must be paid to the Plaintiff and/or his Attorneys-at-Law.
