DEFENDANTS

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

1. The Plaintiff is an individual resident who is residing in Grand Cayman and is considered "Purchaser and/or Former Purchaser" in relation to this claim.
2. The 1st Defendant, at all material times, is an ordinary resident company registered in the Cayman Islands. It is also the legal owner and registered proprietor under the Registered Land Law (2018 Revision) of land located at Lower Valley, Block 38C, Parcel 72 ("the land"). The 1st Defendant is also referred to as the "Vendor" in both the agreement for sale & purchase of land and the agreement to develop.
3. The 2nd Defendant, at all material times, is an ordinary resident company registered in the Cayman Islands. It is referred to as the "Developer" of the land in accordance with both the agreement for sale & purchase of land and the agreement to develop.
4. The 2nd Defendant entered into an agreement with the 1st Defendant to develop the land.
5. The 1st Defendant agreed with the Purchaser to sell part of the land, and the 2nd Defendant agreed to construct a dwelling on said land.

The Agreements

6. The Plaintiff on 2 January 2020 executed two agreements with the Defendants. The said agreements had the combined purpose of the Plaintiff buying part of the land ("Lot No. 31") from the 1st Defendant ("Sale & Purchase Agreement") and to construct a two bedroom two bathroom dwelling thereon ("Unit 407") using the services of the 2nd Defendant ("Agreement to Develop").

This WRIT & STATEMENT OF CLAIM was filed by Samson Law Associates, Attorneys-at-Law for the Plaintiff whose address for service is 20 Genesis Close, PO Box 2425, Grand Cayman, KY1-1105, Cayman Islands. (Attn: Alexandria Fennell email: afennell@samsonlaw.ky)

7. The terms of the Sale & Purchase agreement for the Plaintiff was, inter alia:
 - a. The Plaintiff agreed to the construction of a dwelling on the Strata Lot by the 2nd Defendant upon the terms and conditions of the said agreement.
 - b. The 1st Defendant shall sell and the Plaintiff shall purchase the Strata Lot at the purchase price.
8. The terms of the Agreement to Develop for the Plaintiff was, inter alia:
 - a. The 2nd Defendant has agreed to construct the dwelling on the Strata Lot upon the terms and conditions of the agreement;
 - b. The 2nd Defendant has agreed to develop or cause to be developed the dwelling on the Strata Lot (Unit 407) in the development at the Development Price in accordance with the plans and specifications and subject to the modifications policy;
 - c. The development price was CI$248,500 in the Agreement to Develop.
 - d. The purchase price was CI$1 in the Agreement for Sale and purchase of Land.
 - e. The overall price of the Unit was CI$248,501.
 - f. The development price in the agreement to develop was to be paid by the Plaintiff to the 2nd Defendant as follows:
 - i. The sum of CI$12,425 was to be paid to the 2nd Defendant as an "initial deposit" on the signing of the agreement;
 - ii. The sum of CI$12,425 was to be paid to the 2nd Defendant by the 28th January 2020 and was considered "the further deposit";
 - g. The purchase price in the agreement for sale and purchase of land was to be paid by the Plaintiff to the 2nd Defendant as follows:
 - i. The sum of CI$1 to be paid to the 2nd Defendant as being "the deposit".
9. The balance of both the purchase price and the development price was to be paid on or before the completion date as stipulated in the agreement to develop and agreement for sale and purchase of land. At which time the 2nd Defendant would notify the Plaintiff that the Strata Plan has been registered and a Certificate of Fitness for occupancy for the dwelling to be developed by the 1st Defendant has been issued by the Central Planning Authority of the Cayman Islands.

10. In the event that the 2nd Defendant has not completed the construction of the said dwelling or completed the registration of a strata plan in connection with the development or received from the Registrar of Lands notification that a land register has been opened for the Strata Lot or received a certificate of fitness for occupancy of the dwelling from the central planning authority for the Cayman Islands, by the stipulated dates in both the Plaintiff's agreement to develop and agreement for sale and purchase of land, then either party could, by notice in writing to the other, rescind the agreement to develop and the agreement for sale and purchase of land whereupon the Plaintiff would be entitled to the return of all monies paid under the agreements at which time the agreements would be considered terminated.
11. The Plaintiff paid CI$24899 via Re/Max as the deposit for his unit. This amount was paid in the following increments:
 - a. $11,000 paid on 12 December 2019
 - b. $1425 paid on 17 December 2019
 - c. $11,900 paid on 28 February 2020
 - d. $700 (USD) cash equivalent to CI $574 paid on 28 February 2020.
12. After the Plaintiff paid over the deposit, the 2nd Defendant was unable to perform its obligations under the Agreements and was unable to complete the construction of the development of each Unit in accordance with the completion dates.
13. Several email correspondences were made between the Plaintiff and the Defendants via a representative of Orchard Ecovillage. On or about 31st July 2024, the client received an email from the representatives of Orchard Ecovillage regarding the repayment of the deposit. It mentioned that "all purchasers will be repaid in full for their total amount owing, together with an additional $500 as a thank you for continued patience."
14. The repayment of the deposit along with the promised $500 was never paid by the Defendants.
15. In or about 13 June 2024, the Plaintiff received a Settlement Agreement from the Defendants. The settlement agreement was for the Defendants to repay the deposits made by the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff and the Defendants executed the said settlement agreement. A term of this agreement was that the Defendants would repay the deposits paid by the Plaintiff in the following amounts and timelines:
 - a. CI$ 1740 on 12 July 2024;

This WRIT & STATEMENT OF CLAIM was filed by Samson Law Associates, Attorneys-at-Law for the Plaintiff whose address for service is 20 Genesis Close, PO Box 2425, Grand Cayman, KY1-1105, Cayman Islands. (Attn: Alexandria Fennell email: afennell@samsonlaw.ky)

- b. CI$ 3231 on 30 August 2024; and
 - c. CI$ 19880 on 31 October 2024
16. Despite there being a valid contract formed between the Plaintiff and the Defendants through the settlement agreement, no monies were paid over by the Defendants to the Plaintiff in the time period outlined in the said agreement. The said settlement agreement remained binding on all parties.
17. In addition to the funds outlined in the settlement agreement, the Plaintiff paid $48 in excess of the requested deposit.
18. To date, despite the Defendants making several promises that the remaining debt would be paid, the Plaintiff has not received the outstanding sums along with the $48 paid in excess.
19. The Defendants' failure to repay the remainder of the Plaintiff's deposit amount to a breach of their obligations to the Plaintiff and has caused the Plaintiff to suffer loss and damage as result.

THE PLAINTIFF CLAIM AS FOLLOWS:

- a) CI$24,899 as deposit paid
- b) CI$ 500 as goodwill offer made by the Defendants
- c) Interest at a rate of 2.375%, in accordance with section 24 of the Judicature Act (2021 Revision) and the Judgment Debts (Rates of Interest) Rules (2021 Revision), as amended from time to time;
- d) Costs; and
- e) Such further and other equitable relief as this Honourable Court shall deem fit.

DIRECTIONS FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF SERVICE OF WRIT OF SUMMONS

1. The accompanying form of Acknowledgment of Service should be completed by an Attorney acting on behalf of the Defendant or by the Defendant if acting in person.

After completion it must be delivered or sent by post to the Law Courts, P.O. Box 495, George Town, Grand Cayman.

2. A Defendant who states in his Acknowledgment of Service that he intends to contest the proceedings must also serve a defence on the Attorney for the Plaintiff (or on the Plaintiff if acting in person).

If a Statement of Claim is indorsed on the Writ (i.e. the words "Statement of Claim" appear on the top of page 2), the defence must be served within 14 days after the time for acknowledging service of the Writ, unless in the meantime a summons for judgment is served on the Defendant.

If the Statement of Claim is not indorsed on the Writ, the defence need not be served until 14 days after a Statement of Claim has been served on the Defendant,

If the Defendant fails to serve his defence within the appropriate time, the Plaintiff may enter judgment against him without further notice.

3. A Stay of Execution against the Defendant's goods may be applied for where the Defendant is unable to pay the money for which any judgment is entered. If a Defendant to an action for a debt or liquidated demand (i.e. a fixed sum) who does not intend to contest the proceedings states, in answer to Question 3 in the Acknowledgment of Service, that he intends to apply for a stay, execution will be stayed for 14 days after his Acknowledgment, but he must, within that time, issue a Summons for a stay of execution, supported by an affidavit of his means. The affidavit should state any offer which the Defendant desires to make for payment of the money by instalments or otherwise.

See over for notes for guidance

Notes for Guidance

1. Each Defendant (if there are more than one) is required to complete an Acknowledgment of Service and return it to the Courts Office.
2. For the purpose of calculating the period of 14 days for acknowledging service (or 28 days in the case of a writ served outside the jurisdiction pursuant to an order of the Court), a writ served on the Defendant personally is treated as having been served on the day it was delivered to him.
3. Where the Defendant is sued in a name different from his own, the form must be completed by him with the addition in paragraph 1 of the words "sued as (the name stated on the Writ of Summons)".
4. Where the Defendant is a FIRM and an attorney is not instructed, the form must be completed by a PARTNER by name, with the addition in paragraph 1 of the description "Partner in the firm of (.....)" after his name.
5. Where the Defendant is sued as an individual TRADING IN A NAME OTHER THAN HIS OWN, the form must be completed by him with the addition in paragraph 1 of the description "trading as (.....)" after his name.
6. Where the Defendant is a LIMITED COMPANY, the form must be completed by an Attorney or by someone authorized to act on behalf of the Company, but the Company can take no further step in the proceedings without an Attorney acting on its behalf.
7. Where the Defendant is a MINOR or a MENTAL PATIENT, the form must be completed by an Attorney acting for a guardian ad litem.
8. A Defendant acting in person may obtain help in completing the form at the Courts Office.
